LGT Vestra LLP announces two senior appointments

- Andrew Cattle joins as Wealth Manager
- Noel Craven joins as Investment Manager

LGT Vestra has made two senior appointments with Andrew Cattle joining as a Wealth Manager and Noel Craven as an Investment Manager.

Andrew is a senior wealth management professional with over 30 years of wealth management, private banking and investment banking experience. Andrew joins LGT Vestra as a Wealth Manager where he brings his significant experience to developing relationships with high net worth clients.

For the previous ten years, Andrew has held a number of Senior Management and Relationship Management positions in the Private Bank at Credit Suisse, running teams of bankers in both the onshore and offshore businesses. For the last few years he has been focussed on Finance Professionals and Entrepreneurs. Previous to his role in Private Banking, Andrew spent many years in Investment Banking both in the UK and in Asia.

Noel has joined the Institutional Team, headed by Partner Jacqueline Crawley, and brings his multi asset class portfolio management expertise to the team. Working with the Fixed Income and Equity specialists, Noel is advising on top down asset allocation and the implementation of investment strategies to reflect the macro economic outlook of the firm within portfolios. Additionally, Noel will be leveraging his extensive network of business contacts and ultra high net worth relationships to increase the assets under management of the team through the establishment of his own client list.

Noel joins from Falcon Private Wealth Limited where he worked as Head of Investment Solutions UK for two years and prior to this as Head of Discretionary Portfolio Management. Noel joined Clariden in 2003 and remained with the company through its various guises, to most recently becoming part of the Falcon Group. His responsibilities included management of portfolios and the investment team, and he was a member of the Global Investment Committee and specialism in Fixed Income and Currencies.

David Scott, Chairman, LGT Vestra said: “Our core focus on looking after the client as a long-term relationship is resonating with clients in an environment where many global banks are restructuring their wealth management proposition. We are delighted to welcome Andrew and Noel to the team. Their reputation and experience will be a great addition to helping us continuously improve the service that we offer to our clients.”
