LGT Vestra strengthens Business Development team with new appointment

- Lynsey Carson appointed as Business Development Director in Scotland

LGT Vestra LLP, the leading privately-owned wealth manager, announces the appointment of Lynsey Carson as Business Development Director. Lynsey is responsible for developing LGT Vestra's growing relationships with financial advisers and professional intermediaries in Scotland.

Lynsey has over 16 years experience in the financial services industry and has been with LGT Vestra for four years. Prior to LGT Vestra, Lynsey held senior positions at RBS and Natwest Private Banking, Coutts & Co and latterly Butterfield Private Bank where she was responsible for the wealth management services of the bank's high net worth clients. She is a Chartered Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Securities and Investments and a Member of both the Personal Finance Society and the Chartered Insurance Institute.

Tony Allan, Partner and Head of Business Development at LGT Vestra, said:

"Lynsey's appointment reflects LGT Vestra's ambition to meet the growing demand from financial advisers looking to outsource their investment proposition for clients. I believe Lynsey will be a great addition to helping us continuously improve the service we offer to the adviser community in Scotland."
